COVER STORY

The calligraphy on the cover that says, "The Pride of Seoul, 100 Years of Learning and Sharing" is the slogan of the University of Seoul (UOS). It is artwork from a student named Daehyun Kim at Bucheon Haerym Special School given to the university as a gift to celebrate its 97th anniversary. The UOS volunteering club titled 'Dream Plant' is a project to assist the self-sufficiency of people with developmental disabilities by opening a calligraphy class and making and selling flower pots designed with the calligraphy carefully written by students with such disabilities. These students prove that those who are challenged are not a burden to society needing assistance, but they are that can exert their talents and contribute to society. The students at Haerym School sell the flower pots with their handwriting on them. We are thankful for all the students that are learning to make not only their lives better, but all in our society.

Vision

Innovative and Future-Oriented Researches for Creating Social Values

- Leading the Pioneering Researches for the Future
- Strengthening the Competitiveness of Cities with Convergent Researches
- Building Top-Class and Research-Friendly Environments

Cultivating Competitive Human Resources with Zeitgeist and Citizenship

- Training the Leaders for the Future
- Developing the Creative Innovators
- Fostering the Caring and Open-Minded Humanity

Leading Social Changes with Warm-Hearted Sharing

- Outreaching for the Citizens and Seoul Metropolitan Government
- Voluntary Participation Coupled with Career Development of Individuals
- Volunteering to Meet Various Social Needs

The University of Seoul will soar higher with a greater passion for the next century.

Marking its centennial anniversary in 2018, the University of Seoul has fostered talents that are essential for the Korean society as 'the base of learning and sharing' driven by the university motto of "Truth, Creation, and Service" for the past 100 years. In 2012, we have halved the tuition fees for the first time among universities in Korea, sought after normalization of public education and expanded social contribution activities, fulfilling social responsibilities as a public university.

Appointed as the UOS president this year, I proposed a new vision, "The Pride of Seoul – 100 Years of Learning and Sharing" in order to ensure that all members including students could be proud of the UOS, showing our ambitious goal of being the soul of Seoul.

The UOS is committed to developing competitive talents with the spirit of the times and citizenship, conducting innovative researches that can create social values, and becoming the future-leading university by proactively responding to social needs and conducting sharing programs.

I sincerely ask for your passionate interest and affection for a new higher leap of the University of Seoul for the next century.

July 2015

President of The University of Seoul

Yun-hi Won

UOS History

The Front Gate Remodeled in 1967

Carrying on the Nostalgia over the Passage of Time

It is a rarity to change a front gate of a university as many times as the UOS. The forerunner was Kyung Sung Public Agricultural College on May 1, 1918, followed by Seoul Agricultural Basic College in June 1950 and four-year Seoul Agricultural College in March 1956. In October 1981, it was renamed as the College of Seoul, and as it was elevated to a comprehensive university in March 1987 to be renamed as the current 'University of Seoul.' The photo shows the front gate of Seoul Agricultural College in 1967, which was made of granite. It was used until the school was changed into Seoul Industrial College

Dance Party at the Agricultural Festival at the 58th Anniversary in 1976

Budding Dreams on Campus

The Agricultural Festival was held on the UOS' May 1 anniversary with such diverse events as a sports competition, an academic symposium and an exhibition. A folk dance session with female students dressed in Swiss style of primary colors dancing with male students from Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) was the biggest attention grabber. The beautiful dancers with a dream on campus were the jewels of the festival.

The UOS Museum Opened in 1984

Experiencing the Living History of Seoul

The UOS Museum has established itself as a cultural space for citizens as well as a space for student education by excavating, collecting and exhibiting invaluable cultural assets since it opened in September 1984. The cosy and substantial museum houses 8,000 relics as of now, many of which are from the modern and contemporary history of Seoul, enabling visitors to experience the living history of Seoul.

Bringing back the memories of a century

The current Gyeongnonggwang (Agricultural Management Hall) was constructed in 1937 as the main building of Kyung Sung Public Agricultural College, the forerunner of the UOS. It is the UOS' oldest building embracing the history and traditions of a century. It is now used as Institute of Seoul Studies and a gallery with numerous pieces of art. The area in front of the main building was originally a playground, which is now home to the Law Building and Wellness Center.

A bigger value for a new century - Untapped potentials are what the youthfulness presents to you

The University of Seoul flies higher for the next century. The youthfulness is a journey toward unceasing challenges and a bigger value in a greater world. The future of the UOS unfolds with the encounter of a long history and potentials of the young. We are here to cheer for the young that act out a good will with practical learning and creative thinking.

The UOS is complete with possibilities and pride.

Competitiveness and values of the UOS go beyond Korea to reach the globe. The UOS will become a benchmark of change and innovation.

Q. The UOS is...

A. [the role model of schools]

The UOS has been highly recognized with its education and research capacities in the government's diverse sponsorship projects and evaluations. According to the TIMES of the U.K, the UOS ranked 49th in the 2015 Asia University Ranking. The UOS capacities stood out among Korea's prestigious universities whose ranking have gone down, while exerting its prestige as a global educational institute.

- Ranking 49th in the 2015 Asia University Ranking by the TIMES of the U.K. (ranking 7th among Korean universities)
- 2014 University of highest excellence in the industry-academia cooperation evaluation in the business perspective (for 2 consecutive years from 2013 to 2014)
- 2014 Grade 1 in the integrity evaluation of nationwide national and public universities
- 2015 'University with high quality education' (for 8 consecutive years from 2011 to 2018)

Q. The UOS is...

A. [a specialized university on urban sciences]

The UOS has focused on research and education on urban sciences unyieldingly in order to address various issues confronted by the industrialized and urbanized Seoul. As a consequence, the UOS was selected as a specialized university on urban sciences for six consecutive years by the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology from 2003 to 2008. In 2012, the UOS opened courses at the International School of Urban Sciences(ISUS) for the first time in Korea to foster specialists in overseas construction and urban development. As the International School of Urban Sciences(ISUS) were highly evaluated with its abundant research experiences on urban sciences, it was designated as a specialized graduate school in overseas construction by the Ministry of Land, Infrastructure and Transport.

Master of Urban Administration and Planning (MUAP)

As part of the Seoul ODA business, public officials of sister cities of Seoul are invited to join a Master's program consisting of theoretical subjects and site visits. The program aims to cultivate competent urban experts who can contribute to the development of their home countries and further international exchanges and cooperation.

Master of Urban and Regional Development (MURD)

As part of the KOICA ODA business, the program provides opportunities to government officials from developing countries to gain first-hand knowledge of Korea's development. The purpose of this program is to enable the trainees to apply what they have learned to their home country or local community.

Seoul Case Study Program (SCSP)

As part of Seoul's International Cooperation, 「Case Study : Policy Management in Seoul, Seoul Case Study Program(SCSP)」 was established in 2009 signing MOU with ten universities from United States of America initially and a new MOU was signed with a university from the United Kingdom in of sharing Seoul's experiences with city policies which have attracted attention from overseas and fostering a global network of young scholars specializing in urban policy issues. The program received first group of participants in 2010. In 2013 Seoul Metropolitan Government(SMG) designated the International School of Urban Sciences(ISUS) at University of Seoul(UOS) to host the SCSP program. Ten universities from the USA and one from the UK have so far signed MOU's for participation in the program.

The UOS prioritizes the endeavors of students.

The UOS will be a driving force for many students to challenge themselves for their dream and achieve their goals.

The UOS will take a new leap for stronger competitiveness through equitable scholarship benefits and signing of cooperation agreements with the world's prestigious universities.

Scholarship Benefits for 53.35% of All Students

The UOS providing a stable academic environment for excellent talents extends scholarship to 53.35% of all students through sponsorships from the Seoul Metropolitan Government, which is the highest scholarship receipt rate nationwide. For freshmen whose parents have lived in Seoul for three years and more, 100% of the admission fees are exempted under the citizen scholarship program. As such, a strongly supportive educational environment is offered for students.

Scholarships of the UOS

- Tuition fees that are merely 50% of private schools'
- Scholarships for 53.35% of all students thanks to the Seoul Metropolitan Government's financial support
- Citizen scholarship program to waive 100% admission fees for students whose parents have lived in Seoul for three years and more

Fostering Global Talents

The UOS has signed cooperation agreements with 493 prestigious universities from 68 countries (as of August 2015) and joined the International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) in July 2015 so that it can run student exchange programs with 300 or so new universities worldwide. The UOS presents diverse global programs to foster global talents with a global mindset: 'student exchange program' to build up enrolled students' global capacities; 'global internship' to offer opportunities of working abroad; and 'overseas language training' to work on language proficiency.

[ Number of exchange students ]

Master of Quantum Mechanics

Doyeol Ahn, WB Distinguished Professor of School of Electrical & Computer Engineering

Professor Doyeol Ahn is one of the world's highly recognized experts in quantum information communication technologies, one of the core technology field for the future. In 2005, Professor Ahn was elected to the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers(IEEE) Fellow as the top 0.1% of the total membership. In 2009, he became a Fellow of American Physical Society(APS). As a leading scholar in quantum technologies, he strives to secure the cutting-edge technologies for the future, which would be critical for the nation.

Leading the Future Value of Physics in Korea

Inkyu Park, Professor of Department of Physics

Professor Inkyu Park spearheaded the Experimental Project Team of CMS(Compact Muon Solenoid) in Korea (2010-2012) at the international research project of European Organization for Nuclear Research (CERN). His team proved the existence of the Higgs boson particle as "the God Particle" in the world of physics, contributing to the discovery of the Higgs particle. Professor Park has also been passionate in international researches by publishing 225 papers with Science Citation Index (SCI) as he set up the system for international joint research on computer and networks and conducted the research.

An Expert of the Korea-Japan Relations and History

Jaejeong Chung, Professor of Department of Korean History

Professor Jaejeong Chung gives historical insights and visions to be empathized by those in East Asia and beyond as well as on the Korea-Japan relations, seeking for further reconciliation of the two. As the president of Northeast Asian History Foundation, he has been most proactively engaged in opening up a new horizon in properly understanding of the bilateral relations. His consistent efforts in the field have guided those seeking for genuine cooperation based on accurate understanding of the past and the present.

Korea's Renowned Architectural Expert Spotlighthed by the World

Hyungmin Pai, Professor of Department of Architecture

Professor Hyungmin Pai served as the chief curator for the Korean pavilion which won the Golden Lion prize at the Venice Biennale of Architecture as the first Korean awardee. It was a new exhibition tapping onto the two Koreas' architecture and the unexplored world, garnering global acclaims and opening up a new chapter in the Korean architectural history. Professor acquired his Ph.D at MIT and became the Fulbright Scholar twice. 'The Portfolio and the Diagram' he wrote published by MIT Press is used as a textbook in such prestigious universities as Harvard, Columbia and AA School. He strives to ensure Korean architecture to gain global attention.

An Academic Mentor for Young Engineering Students

Changhwan Shin, Professor of School of Electrical & Computer Engineering

Professor Changhwan Shin won the 'First Young Engineering Educator Award(2014)' organized by Korean Society for Engineering Education. He devotes himself for his pupils to be highly recognized on the global stage, who, in fact, have shown remarkable achievements: publishing their papers in prestigious journals with highest SCI coverage on end, and being selected as special scholarship students at Korea Foundation for Advanced Studies

Another weapon of competitive that the UOS touts

We are to introduce the world-renowned scholars that lead the future of students and raise the prestige of the school.

Overview

International Exchange and Cooperation

As an open and international university looking towards the globalizing world, the University of Seoul (UOS) promotes international exchange at all levels of the institution. Presently, the international exchange program includes both the exchange of students and professors, and the exchange of partner universities' information and staff. The university has exchange programs with 228 universities in 44 countries (as of September 2015), sending and receiving more than 600 students every year. Within the university, the Institute of International Cooperation and Education (IICE) is responsible for all the administrative matters concerning international exchange and cooperation.

International Seminars and Workshops

The University of Seoul is host to more than 20 international conferences and workshops every year. Some of these conferences and workshops include the Seoul Metropolitan Forum, the Seoul-Shanghai Forum, the Asian Coalition for Architecture and Urbanism, the Korea-Japan Symposium on History Textbooks, and the International Comparative Language Education Conference. These particular conferences represent the special emphasis that UOS has on cooperation within the Asian region.

Institute of International Cooperation and Education

With the globalizing international economy and society, UOS has recognized the importance of enhancing its international capability. This is being done through the development of various practical programs by educators and specialists, and through the centers that compose the IICE. These centers are the Center for International Cooperation, the Center for Foreign Language Education and the Center for Korean studies. The responsibilities of each center are as follows.

- Center for International Cooperation: International Partnership, the Exchange Student Program, the Global Internship Program and the International Summer School Program
- Center for Foreign Language Education: the Overseas Language Training Program, and the On-campus Language Program
- Center for Korean Studies: International Admissions, the Korean Language and Culture Program and Courses for Korean & Asian Studies

Exchange Student Program

Exchange Students are those who have applied and are nominated by an overseas university under a formal exchange agreement. Tuition is paid to the home university, and in most cases, the application and documentation fee is waived. Applications should proceed with the approval of the international office of the students' home university. Exchange students may study for as long as two semesters.

Eligibility and Application Process

Students from the partner universities of UOS should apply to the international office of the students' home universities. After the application, home universities will nominate students to come to UOS. After nominated, students may apply for UOS through <http://global.uos.ac.kr>.

Courses offered in English

Exchange students can take any courses offered at UOS between 6 credits to 20 credits every semester. Courses offered in English can be found at our website of <http://global.uos.ac.kr>.

Scholarship

• The University of Seoul Student

Exchange Support Scholarship
UOS provides a monthly stipend of 400,000 KRW to each exchange student whose home university agrees to offer similar benefit to the exchange students from UOS.

• Global Korea Scholarship (GKS)

National Institute for International Education (NIIED) is offering Global Korea Scholarships for exchange students studying at UOS. The GKS provides a one-time settlement fee of 200,000 KRW, a monthly stipend of 800,000 KRW, and pays roundtrip airfare. The University of Seoul will make a recommendation to NIIED and the final decision on the granting of the scholarships is decided upon by NIIED.

SeoulMate

SeoulMates are UOS students who will help new comer students in various ways. They plan and lead many of the cultural immersion programs that are supported by UOS international office. Each SeoulMate is assigned 3-4 exchange students allowing students to have a one on one cultural Korean exchange and to have a reliable avenue of help if need be.

Global Lounge

Global Lounge is a place where international students and UOS Korean students can get together and exchange languages and cultures under free and fun atmospheres. International students also have the opportunity to work as paid employees by being teachers or general staff.

Programs for International students

International Summer School

Since 2000, the International Summer School (ISS) has provided international students with a great opportunity to learn about Korean culture and tradition. Both undergraduates and graduates are eligible for the program.

ISS runs in June~July every summer for about a month and it offers courses related to Asian Studies, International Studies, Urban Studies, and Korean Language. Each class meets 45 hours for 3 credits during the program, and the students are able to take up to 3 courses. In addition, on campus accommodation is available to all participants.

For more details, please visit our website at <http://global.uos.ac.kr>.

Specialties of the Program

- UOS buddies to help you with your adventure in Korea
- Mingling with friends from all over the world and making global network
- Chance to explore UNESCO world Treasure Jeju Island in Korea
- Various field trips and cultural activities

Benefits for the Exchange Students from our Partner Universities

- Tuition, registration, accommodation and cultural activity fees are waived.
- More than 50% of expenses to the optional Jeju Island field trip is covered by UOS.

SeoulMate & UOS BUDDY

SeoulMates are UOS students who will help new comer exchange students in various ways. The Korean Language and Culture Program (KLCP) also provides UOS BUDDY who will help new comer international students to study Korean language.

Global Lounge

Global Lounge is a place where international students and UOS Korean students can get together and exchange languages and cultures under free and fun atmospheres. International students could also work as paid employers like staffs and language teachers.

- Keepers do welcome visitors, clean the lounge, and manage all the facilities. (5,000won/hr)
- Teachers teach their language to a small group of students. (15,000won/hr)

Course Registration

Once a student is admitted to the UOS as an exchange student, the regional coordinators of the international office and SeoulMates will contact and directly assist the student's course registration before arrival to Korea.

Normally the list of courses is prepared in mid February for spring semester and in mid August for fall semester.

Alien Registration

All foreigners planning to stay in Korea for more than 90 days must report to the Seoul Immigration Office (2,3F Seoul Global Center, 64-1, Seorin-dong, Jongno-gu, Tel:1345) and register for the Alien Registration Card (외국인등록증) within 90 days from the date of arrival. To apply for the Alien Registration Card, you should already have a long-term visa.

Within the orientation session for new exchange students, you will submit all the documents which are required to complete the Alien Registration. It takes approximately 10 business days for the Immigration Office to process the application. Applicants must leave their passport with the Immigration Office during this period and the office will return it through international office when the application is completed.

* For more details, please visit the Immigration Office website at <http://www.immigration.go.kr/HP/IMM80/index.do>.
